MYWEDDINGCENTRAL

SUPPLIER MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

Your Day. Your Way. All in One Place.

This document sets out the terms and conditions applicable to suppliers using the MyWeddingCentral platform ("MyWeddingCentral", "we", "us" or "our"). This document is made available for suppliers and other interested persons to download and review. No supplier information is required to be completed on this document.

1. Purpose of the Platform

MyWeddingCentral is a South African online wedding platform intended to connect couples planning weddings with wedding suppliers. Suppliers may create a profile, showcase their business and services, and receive opportunities to be contacted by couples, including through the MyWeddingCentral 1 Click Quote System.

2. Supplier Profiles and Information

Supplier information published on MyWeddingCentral may include a business name, category, description, contact details, photographs, pricing or service information and other information supplied by the supplier. Suppliers are responsible for ensuring that information they provide is accurate, lawful and reasonably up to date.

3. 1 Click Quote System

The MyWeddingCentral 1 Click Quote System may allow a couple to submit one quote request to multiple relevant suppliers at the same time. MyWeddingCentral does not guarantee that any supplier will receive a particular number of enquiries, quotations, bookings, sales or revenue. Any quotation, booking, deposit, payment or service agreement between a supplier and a couple is between those parties unless MyWeddingCentral expressly agrees otherwise in writing.

4. Free Trial and Membership Fee

The MyWeddingCentral supplier membership includes an initial 2-month free trial. No membership payment is required during the free-trial period. After the free trial, the membership fee is R250 per month, unless a different fee is expressly communicated and accepted. Membership is monthly and there is no fixed-term contract.

5. Recurring Subscription and Cancellation

After the free trial, the supplier authorises the applicable payment provider to process the recurring monthly membership fee. The membership automatically renews monthly unless cancelled. A supplier may cancel at any time. Cancellation prevents future recurring charges, subject to the payment provider's processing rules and any amount already due. Where applicable, access remains active until the end of the current paid billing period unless MyWeddingCentral states otherwise.

6. Payment and Failed Payments

If a recurring payment fails, MyWeddingCentral may restrict, suspend or remove the supplier profile until the account is brought up to date. MyWeddingCentral may use its payment provider's available notification, retry or cancellation processes.

7. Supplier Responsibilities

Suppliers are responsible for providing genuine and lawful products or services, responding honestly and professionally to couples, honouring accepted quotations and agreements, and complying with all laws and regulations applicable to their business. Suppliers must not upload misleading, fraudulent, unlawful, defamatory or infringing material.

8. Content and Permission to Display

A supplier who submits photographs, logos, business information or other promotional material to MyWeddingCentral confirms that it has the necessary rights or permissions to provide that material and grants MyWeddingCentral permission to display it for operating, promoting and marketing the supplier profile and MyWeddingCentral platform.

9. Intellectual Property

MyWeddingCentral's website, branding, logo, platform design, software, text and original platform materials remain the property of MyWeddingCentral or their respective rights holders. Suppliers retain ownership of their own business content, subject to the permission granted for platform use.

10. No Guarantee of Results

MyWeddingCentral provides a platform and lead-generation opportunity. We do not guarantee enquiries, customer numbers, bookings, income, ranking, search placement or any particular business result. Results may vary according to demand, location, category, pricing, profile quality and other factors.

11. Supplier and Couple Relationships

MyWeddingCentral is not responsible for the conduct, representations, payment, performance, quality or legal compliance of a supplier or a couple. Suppliers and couples are responsible for assessing each other and entering into their own agreements where appropriate.

12. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, MyWeddingCentral will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special or consequential loss arising from use of the platform, loss of business, loss of profit, missed opportunities, disputes between suppliers and couples, or platform interruptions. Nothing in this document excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded.

13. Suspension or Termination

MyWeddingCentral may suspend or terminate a supplier profile where there is suspected fraud, unlawful activity, serious misconduct, misuse of the platform, infringement of rights, non-payment or material breach of applicable terms. Where appropriate and legally required, reasonable notice or an opportunity to remedy a breach may be provided.

14. Privacy and Personal Information

Personal information will be handled in accordance with MyWeddingCentral's Privacy Policy and applicable South African privacy law. Suppliers are responsible for handling customer information they receive through the platform responsibly and lawfully.

15. Changes to the Platform or Terms

MyWeddingCentral may update the platform, features, pricing or applicable terms from time to time. Material changes will be communicated through reasonable means where required by law. Continued use of the platform after an effective change may constitute acceptance where legally permitted.

16. Governing Law

This document and the relationship between MyWeddingCentral and its suppliers are governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa, subject to applicable mandatory legal requirements.

17. Entire Agreement

This document, together with the applicable MyWeddingCentral Privacy Policy, website Terms & Conditions, Membership/Cancellation Policy and other policies expressly incorporated into the supplier membership, records the applicable terms governing supplier use of the platform.

MYWEDDINGCENTRAL AUTHORISATION

This document is issued by MyWeddingCentral as the platform's Supplier Membership Agreement. The signature below is for MyWeddingCentral's authorised representative. No supplier signature or supplier information is required on this downloadable version.

Legal review notice

This document is a business contract and terms template prepared for MyWeddingCentral. Before relying on it as the final legal agreement for the business, MyWeddingCentral should have the document reviewed by a qualified South African attorney, particularly regarding POPIA, the Consumer Protection Act, recurring payments, electronic contracting and limitation-of-liability provisions.
